PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

OVERSIGHT BOARD PUBLISHES ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTS OF MEMBERS, SENIOR STAFF

Periodic transaction reports for 2Q 2017 now available on Board's website

(San Juan, PR – August 11, 2017) – The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”), created by Congress under the bipartisan Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”), published today the second quarterly periodic transaction reports of its members and designated senior staff for the second quarter of 2017—covering the period from April 1 to June 30, 2017. The documents are available on the Oversight Board’s website, www.oversightboard.pr.gov, under the “Documents” section.

These quarterly periodic transaction reports call for members and designated senior staff to report any purchase, sale, or exchange made by them, their spouse or their dependent child, of stocks, bonds, commodity futures, and other securities if the amount of the transaction exceeded $1,000.

In addition to providing and publishing quarterly transactional disclosures by all of its members and designated senior staff, the Oversight Board is also committed to issuing annual financial disclosures. Oversight Board members’ most recent annual disclosures, as well as their first quarterly disclosures for 2017 are also available on the Board’s website.

Prior to posting, all disclosures have been subject to review and analysis by the Oversight Board’s Ethics Advisor, Andrea Bonime-Blanc.

“Strict adherence to transparency and ethics is a guiding principle for the Oversight Board. It is my mandate to assist the Board in these matters and we will continue to strengthen efforts in this respect in order to proactively provide concerned stakeholders with clear, pertinent information,” said Bonime-Blanc.
