(San Juan, PR – December 22, 2017) – The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board” or the “Board”), created by Congress under the bipartisan Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”), published today the quarterly periodic transaction reports of its members and designated senior staff for the third quarter of 2017—covering the period from July 1 to September 30, 2017. The documents are available on the Oversight Board’s website, www.oversightboard.pr.gov, under the “Documents” section.

These quarterly periodic transaction reports call for members and designated senior staff to report any purchase, sale, or exchange made by them, their spouse or their dependent child, of stocks, bonds, commodity futures, and other securities if the amount of the transaction exceeded $1,000.

Oversight Board members’ first and second quarterly disclosures for 2017 are also available on the Board’s website.

Prior to posting, all disclosures have been subject to review and analysis by the Oversight Board’s Ethics Advisor, Andrea Bonime-Blanc.

“The Board continues in its steadfast commitment to transparency and disclosure through recently adopted revisions to its Code of Conduct reflecting greater guidance on conflicts of interest issues, and through its bylaws and related policies and protocols,” said Bonime-Blanc.
